

Notice of Non-Discrimination

Neighborhood Health Plan of Rhode Island (Neighborhood) does not discriminate or treat people differently because of race, color, national origin (including people who do not speak English as their primary language), age, disability, religion, or sex (such as sexual orientation, sexual stereotypes, gender identity, pregnancy or related conditions).

We're here for you!

Neighborhood offers FREE assistance such as:

- » aids and services for people with disabilities
- » qualified interpreters, translation services, and sign language interpreters
- » written information in large print, braille, electronic and audio format

If you need any of these services, call the Member Services phone number on the back of your Neighborhood ID card. If you are not a Neighborhood member, please call us at 1-800-963-1001 (TTY 711).

Discrimination Complaints

If you feel like Neighborhood has failed to provide these services or has discriminated based on race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a complaint, also known as a grievance. You can file a grievance in person, by phone, mail, fax or email. Need help? Call your Neighborhood Civil Rights Coordinator at the phone number below.
